Report items

None

The current budget picture was received.

To agree a date for the annual risk assessment tour

It was agreed that the tour would be held on a Friday in September. The Clerk would email members to arrange.

To consider quotes for the 5 yearly electrical installation condition report for Hinks Meadow Hall

Three quotes had been received for the EICR for Hinks Meadow Hall. It was RESOLVED to accept the quote from Electech, in the sum of £295, being the cheapest of the quotes received.

To consider quote for additional repairs to the tennis courts

Councillors were advised that, following the scheduled court cleaning and repairs, the contractor had identified more work that would need to be carried out than had been expected when he had provided a quote from the previous year. The Meeting was aware that the condition of the courts was deteriorating rapidly and was keen to keep the surfaces playable as long as possible until the reconstruction project could commence. It was RESOLVED to accept the quote for the additional work in the sum of £500.

To identify future sports related projects for the period 2025 – 2030

It was commented that the Council could consider provision for padel tennis in Taverham North alongside the plans for the proposed MUGA.
